History: Crapos from Rochester, MA. They migrated as wagon trains did through Windham Co., VT. Some of the families stayed, some moved on to NY. Schaghticoke. Spellings: CRAPO, CRAPOO, CRAPPOO, CRAPEAU, CRAPAUD, CREAPO, CRAPOE, CREPO.

10. (Peter) Pierre CRAPO (Crapoo spelling signed twice) (ca. 1677 in France - 3 May 1756 in Rochester, MA), arrived in U.S. ~1680) m. 1) Penelope WHITE (12 March 1681 or 12 Mar. 1686/1687 in Rochester, Plymouth, MA - 23 Nov 1738) on 31 May 1704 in Rochester, MA. Penelope was the daughter of Samuel WHITE, and, 2) Anne LUCE (? - ?) on 23 Nov. 1738 in Rochester, MA. It is thought that Peter came from France as a stowaway on a ship his brother captained. It was shipwrecked near Cape Cod ca. 1690. He was assumed to be about 10 at the time. He was placed in the home of Francis Coombs of Rochester and his brother returned to France. 3 of the sailors stayed in Mass and raised families there. One was Louis DeMaranville who didn't marry till Peter had a daughter old enough to marry, Susannah. When Peter was old enough to marry he owned property "on the banks of Sniptuit Pond" in Rochester, which remained in the family for many generations. Their 11th and last child was born 15 Aug. 1750 "when Pa was 80." References for Peter: birth: Mayflower Families 5 Gen. Vol. I, L. Kellogg Ed., death: Mayflower Families 5 Gen. Vol. I, L. She was the dau. of Amos CRAPO (ca. 1790 - 1838/1839) and Sophia/Sophrony MABB (1794 - 1852). Maria's father, dates unknown, unproven. In 1850 Rensselaer Co., NY census, Cornelius and Maria live in Schaghticoke with their children James 4, Hellen 2, and Joseph 6/12. 1860 census of Schaghticoke, Rensselaer Co., NY, lists: Cornelius WALDRON 43 farm laborer, Maria A. 42, James A. 20 day laborer, Eleanor A. 12, Joseph 10, Phebe A. 8, William 5, Gerrit C. 8/12 who died young (before the next census). In 1870 4 children still live at home: James, now 30 who works in the woolen mill, as do the other 3, Joseph 20, Phebe 17, and William 16. Note the changing ages. Cornelius is listed as a farm laborer and Maria keeps house. All the children can read and write, and William is still in school. The 1880 census for Hart's Falls, Town of Schaghticoke, lists the family: Maria white female 60 widowed keeping house, Joseph w.m. 37 son, Phoebe w.f. 25 daughter, William w.m. 23 son. Cornelius and Maria are buried in the Elmwood Cemetery on Stillwater Bridge Rd., Schaghticoke. Elinor and her husband Thomas RAIN are also buried there. The WALDRON Monument is a 4-sided obelisk about 7 ft. tall on the extreme eastern end of the cemetery overlooking Gary Viall's home to the east (1992); Maria (CRAPO) WALDRON's mother, Sophia (MABB) CRAPO, is buried on the Viall Farm in the older burying ground that holds perhaps 40 graves.
